MOBILITY AND FITNESS TO TRAVEL
It is the responsibility of the traveler to ensure that they are in physical condition to participate in all aspects of the program. It is also the responsibility of the traveler to purchase their own travel insurance that covers the extra expenses of medical evacuation, repatriation, or similar situations. AHI Travel is not responsible for any medical or evacuation expenses incurred by a traveler due to their decision to travel.

AIR PROGRAM
May 27-6 June 2014
AHI Travel's exclusive Air Program provides special advantages to the traveler who is flying on our designated group flights. Should your air arrangements be a part of a more extensive travel program that requires flying to and from different locations, you may still take advantage of the specially selected flights by adding the air segment(s) listed on your brochure. For the special price of $275 per person, flying round-trip from New York JFK or Newark EWR, you may choose the Group Discount Business Class or the Advance Purchase Excursion fare. After tickets are issued, penalties up to 100% of the ticket price may be assessed by the airlines if reservations are cancelled or modified. On occasion, AHI Travel may need to rebook any flight, including the return flight. Any adjustment to your air ticket costs is made at the time of your final payment. The air segment is subject to availability and is offered only until the tickets are issued.

AHI AIR BENEFITS

Normandy Celebrated with Honor

Program Highlights

• Spend seven nights in Normandy, one of France’s most historic regions.
• Experience ten full days of exploration highlighting the 70th anniversary of D-Day, including visits to Omaha Beach, the American Cemetery at Colleville-sur-Mer, the D-Day beaches, the American Military Cemetery at Omaha Beach, the Normandy Memorial in Caen.
• Experience the changing, painterly town of Honfleur.

Visit the Majestic Mont-Saint-Michel, a World Heritage Site, and travel to Giverny and Normandy to learn aboutpressionism, van Gogh’s life and work, and the American soldiers for their countries.

Friday, June 5, 2014, marking the 70th anniversary of D-Day, the day that the Allies formally accepted the Nazis’ unconditional surrender. This was the beginning of the end of World War II, a time when Allied troops landed along a 75-mile stretch of Normandy coastline. The invasion, also known as Overlord, was a strategic military operation launched by the Allies on June 6, 1944 in the face of heavy German resistance. As the soldiers began to encounter the enemy, the Allies had gained a foothold in France. By the end of that day, the Allies had gained a 50-mile stretch of Normandy coastline.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Becoming Normandy is one of the most beautiful regions in France as you never see it before. This year marks the 70th anniversary of D-Day when Allied forces landed in Normandy and changed the course of World War II. Mark this occasion with two live Webcasts featuring the veteran leaders and heroes of this historic event, accompanied by an expert guide. This skillful national program explores a region we’ve included in highlight of its history, including the historic port town of Cherbourg, the UNESCO World Heritage site of Mont Saint-Michel and Claude Monet’s beautiful home at Giverny.

Your trip will be designed by Angela C. Dimopoulos, who has extensive experience working with groups, negotiating special deals and ensuring a smooth and relaxing journey. She has been a travel agent for over 20 years and has traveled extensively throughout Europe.

Featuring two full days of exploration that proved to be the beginning of the end of their march across Europe with one clear challenge, a heroic formation of American soldiers was able to scale a 50-mile stretch of Normandy coastline. They were there to fight Nazi Germany, and their journey to liberate Paris was marked with great sacrifice and determination. The anniversary of D-Day, including visits to Omaha Beach and the iconic German gun battery, is a significant moment for history enthusiasts. As they approached the beaches, the soldiers disembarked and waded ashore. The scene that has inspired artists, writers, and historians has been immortalized on canvas by the likes of Monet and Van Gogh. The rest of the day is yours to explore at your leisure. From your base in the charming town of Honfleur, you will be accompanied by a local expert. The Spirit of American Youth Statue stands at the harbor in Honfleur. Upon your arrival in France, meet your traveling companions and get your bearings during a brief orientation meeting in the central city of Caen. If time allows, enjoy a stroll through the charming streets of the town center, perhaps stopping to enjoy a beverage at a quaint café before checking into our hotel for the evening.

DAY TWO

INDEPENDENT EXPLORATION: OLD HONFLEUR

Get ready for your first independent exploration experience of the trip! This afternoon is yours to see the Normandy region your way. We recommend going to the picturesque town of Old Honfleur, a charming historic port featuring elegant architecture, narrow streets, and atmospheric cafes. Take a leisurely walk around the town center and enjoy an included dinner at a local restaurant.

Afternoon Free Time: Old Honfleur and the Sea

This afternoon is included for your independent exploration. Perhaps you'll want to enjoy a leisurely walk around the picturesque town of Old Honfleur, with its charming houses, narrow streets, and picturesque harbor. Or, you may choose to spend the afternoon at your leisure, perhaps visiting a local museum or enjoying an outing on the sea. The choice is yours!

DAY THREE

Breakfast is served La Terra Mariniere in Honfleur, then you'll board your bus for a tour to the American cemetery at Omaha Beach. Take a moment to reflect on the sacrifices made by the service members for their countries. The cemetery honors the brave soldiers buried here, and an American soldier proceeds into the cemetery to lay a wreath. A Memorial Museum offers a detailed, interactive look at the historical events that took place on D-Day, and the role that the site played in the Allied victory. After your visit, enjoy a light lunch at a nearby restaurant. Dinner is served at a local restaurant. You'll then head to the Mercure Honfleur Hôtel in Honfleur for a night of restful sleep.

Breakfast is served at the Mercure Honfleur Hôtel, and you'll board your bus for a full day of travel. You'll first stop in Giverny, a picturesque French town nestled against a 50-mile stretch of Normandy coastline. Once there, we'll visit the Claude Monet Museum, where we'll explore the artist’s garden and studio. Witness Monet’s unique impressionist style and learn about the artist’s life and work. You’ll then head to the town center for a free afternoon with time to explore on your own. You’ll return to the hotel in the evening for dinner and a night of restful sleep.

Located at the heart of the town center, close to the church and other historic features that have been immortalized in famous paintings by Claude Monet, is a charming, first-class hotel. The Mercure Honfleur Hôtel is an ideal choice for exploring the Normandy region. The friendly and helpful staff will attend to your needs, and the recently renovated interior provides an oasis of comfort.
